(NORTH BABYLON, NY... September 28, 2015) – Under sunny skies on a crisp morning, community spirit shined bright as Suffolk County Legislator Lou D’Amaro (D-North Babylon) joined North Babylon School District students, administrators, local youth athletes and Board of Education members for the annual North Babylon High School Homecoming Parade on Saturday, September 26th. Beginning on Garnet Street with the Suffolk County Police Department and the North Babylon Fire Department leading the way, “Bulldog Pride” was evident as spectators filled the sidelines along Deer Park Avenue during the march to the high school. The Bulldogs went on to defeat Smithtown High School East, 54-6, in the football game held later that day.

“As a North Babylon resident, I am always proud to march along with my neighbors in the annual Homecoming parade,” said Legislator D’Amaro. “It was wonderful to witness and experience the spirit and enthusiasm from all who came out to support North Babylon. Go Bulldogs!”
