Legislator D'Amaro and County Office for the Aging Announce Fall Senior Advocates Schedule

(HUNTINGTON STATION, NY... September 19, 2016) – Legislator Lou D'Amaro (D-Huntington Station) is pleased to inform Babylon and Huntington residents that the Suffolk County Office for the Aging's Fall 2016 Senior Advocate Schedule has been released. Senior advocates are County representatives who come out to the local community and assist seniors with information gathering, completion of eligibility or recertification applications and referrals to appropriate community agencies.

“Nobody should ever have to go without food, medical attention or other necessities, which is why our senior advocates literally bring these vital programs and services directly to our seniors in their own communities,” D'Amaro said.

Senior Advocates meet with interested seniors aged 60 and over at regularly-scheduled times in specific locations throughout the community. This fall, they are visiting the following locations in the Town of Babylon:

- Deer Park Library, 44 Lake Avenue, Deer Park: Friday, November 4 from 9 am – 11 am

For more information about available services, or for directions to any of the locations, please call the Suffolk County Office for the Aging at (631) 853-8200. Appointments are encouraged but drop-ins are also welcome. No individual will ever be turned away.

“Senior citizens are the backbone of our community, and for more than three decades, the Suffolk County Office for the Aging has assisted these very important residents by giving them full and trouble-free access to critical services,” D’Amaro said. “I urge every senior resident to take full advantage of this professional community outreach program so that they don’t miss out on the County’s network of services.”
