Selden, NY –Suffolk County Legislator Tom Muratore’s (R-Ronkonkoma) staff was on hand at Tecumseh Elementary School in Farmingville to read to Mrs. Collins’ third grade class.

The event, “Readers are Leaders Day” was designed to help students learn about pillars of good character and leadership. Leaders of the community were invited to come read a book to each class. Legislator Muratore commented, “I applaud the school’s effort to teach young people who their community leaders are and the roles they play. It will better equip them to become our leaders of tomorrow.”
