Selden, NY - This past weekend was filled with a favorite American pastime for Legislator Tom Muratore (R-Ronkonkoma) and young ball players in the area. On Saturday, April 25, Muratore attended the annual Opening Day Ceremonies for the Selden-Centereach Three Villages Little League at the Levitt Field Complex in Centereach. The ceremonies included a parade, singing of the national anthem, and first pitch. Legislator Muratore and Brookhaven Town Councilman Kevin LaValle were asked to each throw out the first pitches for the 2015 season.

Sunday, April 26 was opening day for the Middle Country Baseball League, run by the Middle Country Youth Association. This event was held at the Unity Drive Elementary School in Centereach. Legislator Muratore again had the honor of throwing a ceremonial first pitch. "Little League Opening Day is one of my favorite community events. Neighbors and families work together in a positive and constructive manner to build the physical and moral characters of these precious children," remarked Legislator Muratore. "I wish the ball players a safe and exciting season."
