Selden, NY - Suffolk County Legislator Tom Muratore (R-Ronkonkoma) has announced that once again, he and Brookhaven Town Councilman Kevin LaValle (R-Selden) will be sponsoring a community blood drive on Tuesday, September 1, 2015. The drive, held in conjunction with Long Island Blood Services, will take place at the Middle Country Public Library's Centereach branch, located at 101 Eastwood Boulevard. Donation hours are 2:00pm-8:00pm. As an added incentive, all donors will receive two free tickets to a New York Mets game.

“Once again, I am pleased to collaborate with Councilman LaValle for such a worthwhile cause,” stated Legislator Muratore. “Many people depend on the support of the community for life-saving blood transfusions. I urge all those who meet the eligibility criteria to come donate a pint of blood, and get rewarded with two tickets to a New York Mets game!”

Councilman LaValle commented, “It is a great pleasure to once again partner with Legislator Muratore on such an important event. Every two seconds someone in America receives a blood transfusion. Five million patients will need blood this year. I encourage the residents of the Third Council District to participate in this event; you will truly be giving the gift of life to someone in need by giving blood.”

If you would like to schedule an appointment, or if you have any questions, please call Legislator Tom Muratore's office at (631) 854-9292 or Councilman LaValle's office at (631) 451-6647.
