Legislator Tom Muratore Donates Surplus Laptops to Sachem Teen Center

Selden, NY –Suffolk County Legislator Tom Muratore recently donated two surplus laptop computers to the Sachem Teen Center in Ronkonkoma.

Part of Sachem Community Youth Services, the Teen Center's mission is to provide positive outlets and alternatives for youth. Their programs encourage children and adolescents toward becoming productive and responsible community members. "We at Sachem Community Youth Services would like to thank Legislator Muratore for the donation of the two laptops," stated John Fiorvante, the Center's Executive Director. "We truly appreciate his continued help and support of our agency and the youth of our community. The laptops will be put to good use by the kids in our Tutoring/Mentoring Program."

The laptops were part of a larger portion declared surplus by the Suffolk County Legislature, divided amongst district offices for non-profits within the community. "I am happy to provide Sachem Teen Center with the laptops," stated Legislator Muratore. "Any contribution that supports the education and welfare of our youth population is an investment in our future."
