Selden, NY - Suffolk County Legislator Tom Muratore recently attended an installation ceremony at the newly named Veterans of Foreign Wars- Sgt. Jason Santora-Sgt. Louis Bonacasa Memorial Post 400 in Centereach.

The Post's incoming officers for this year are: Commander John J. Rago, Senior Vice Commander Walter J. Solgan, Junior Vice Commander Guillermo F. Sandoval, Quartermaster James P. Marin, and Chaplain William J. Montano. The outgoing Commander, Dennis Lundy, was thanked by Legislator Muratore for his years of service, and presented with a Certificate of Recognition.

"I cannot express enough admiration and appreciation for the men and women of this post who continually serve our community," stated Legislator Tom Muratore. "First, they joined the armed forces to protect and serve our country, and now they help fellow veterans returning to civilian life. I thank them from the bottom of my heart for all they do. Congratulations to the incoming officers of Post 400, and best of luck to Past Commander Dennis Lundy."
