Selden, NY – Legislator Tom Muratore was once again invited to be the guest speaker at the Westfield Seniors Club, which meets each Wednesday at the Selden Fire Department.

At the meeting, Legislator Muratore handed out helpful resources explaining the available county resources and services, followed up with a question and answer period. "The senior population makes up 19.9% of the registered voters in Suffolk County, which gives them a strong voice," Legislator Muratore explained. "It is important that their needs are heard and addressed. The Westfield Seniors are active members that show much interest in their community; I thank them for inviting me back as their guest."
