Selden, NY – Legislator Tom Muratore, along with other elected officials attended the Ronkonkoma Chamber of Commerce's Annual Street Fair, held each year on Hawkins Avenue. Many vendors lined the streets and offered delicious foods, clothing, jewelry and other goods and services. Thousands of local residents brought their families and pets to join in the festivities. Legislator Muratore's table provided useful literature pertaining to county government.

“Despite predictions of bad weather, the day was beautiful and the fair just as successful as previous years,” stated Legislator Muratore. I love this venue for meeting my constituents and discussing matters of importance within the community. Thanks again to the Ronkonkoma Chamber of Commerce for coordinating this huge event.”
