Legislator Martinez Attends an Art Exhibit at the East Islip Public Library

Legislator Monica R. Martinez attended an art exhibit at the East Islip Public Library on Sunday, January 18, 2015. The artist of the month was Angel Paniagua, a Brentwood resident and active member of the Puerto Rican Coalition for a Better Community.

Angel Paniagua, a lifelong resident of Brentwood was chosen to display his art work for the enjoyment of Islip residents. The entire second floor wall was decorated with beautiful work.

Mr. Paniagua displayed canvases of forests, animals, flowers and well-known infrastructure of Puerto Rican culture.

“It gives me great pleasure to see Mr. Paniagua’s paintings being displayed for people to see. He has such beautiful work and I look forward to more of his art exhibits,” stated Legislator Martinez.
