(Smithtown, NY)... Suffolk County Legislator Robert Trotta honored Thomas James (TJ) Passaro of Boy Scout Troop 125 for achieving the rank of Eagle Scout at his Court of Honor on January 11, 2014. For his Eagle Scout Leadership Service Project, TJ built a stone border around three areas at the Little Shelter Rescue Center in Huntington, whereby he provided a finished, landscaped look and filled it with top soil and shrubbery to enhance the shelter's overall appearance.

Legislator Trotta said, "This is a very proud moment for TJ and his parents, as well as his fellow scouts and troop leaders. I extend my congratulations to all of them for being outstanding community leaders. I wish him well in his future endeavors and hope that he will remain active in his community."
