Suffolk County Legislator Robert Trotta Honors Troop 125 of Commack Newest Eagle Scout...Samuel David Isaac of East Northport

(Smithtown, NY)...Suffolk County Legislator Robert Trotta recognized Samuel David Isaac of Boy Scout Troop 125 for achieving the rank of Eagle Scout at his recent Court of Honor held at the Commack United Methodist Church. For his Eagle Scout Project, Sam built three benches and put a fire pit in at the F-shelter campsite at the West Hills County Park in Melville. The fire pit ensures a more contained and safer environment in which to have a campfire. His troop also uses this campsite for its annual Holiday in the Woods outing.

Legislator Trotta presented Sam with a proclamation at the ceremony. “This is a very proud moment for Sam, his parents and family, as well as his troop leaders and fellow scouts. I extend my congratulations to him for being an outstanding member of the community and hope that he will remain active in his community. His accomplishment has set a high standard for commitment and dedication, which I hope will inspire the youth of our great County of Suffolk,” said Legislator Robert Trotta.
