Physical Therapy & Beyond Relocates in Smithtown Legislator Robert Trotta Welcomes Owner and Staff

Physical Therapy & Beyond provides treatment for individuals who need physical therapy to treat various health related conditions, including sports related injuries, fall risk training and balance disorders, as well as concussions. Specialists certified in Schroth scoliosis and McKenzie spine practices and licensed massage therapists are also a part of the practice.

In addition to the new Smithtown location, Ms. Prentiss has offices in East Setauket and Oakdale. For more information, please call 631-361-5111.

“I wish Ms. Prentiss continued success with her business and am thrilled to have her as a new neighbor,” said Legislator Trotta.
