Smithtown, NY)...Suffolk County Legislator Robert Trotta recently attended the Girl Scouts of Suffolk County Silver Award Ceremony at the John Glenn High School in Elwood. To earn the Silver Award, the highest honor a Girl Scout Cadette can achieve, a girl must complete a Cadette Journey and fifty hours of service dedicated to creating a sustainable project that will improve a community.

Cadette Aislin Peet of East Northport received her Silver Award pin for building houses for pigs at Janice Skura's Pig Sanctuary so they can live in a protective environment during the winter and she also constructed a fence around part of the sanctuary.

Also an animal lover and a resident of East Northport, Cadette Kaitlyn Cunningham earned her Silver Award pin for designing and building cat hammocks for the outdoor enclosure at the Huntington Animal Shelter where they can play and rest in a safe setting. "These young women who earned this award exemplify the values of leadership, character and service that are inherent in the Girl Scouts and I congratulate them and their parents and scout leaders," said Legislator Robert Trotta.
