Suffolk County Legislator Robert Trotta Attends FIST Awareness Night

Suffolk County Legislator Robert Trotta greets Kings Park resident Kim Revere, president of Kings Park in the kNOw and a member of FIST, who also helped to plan the event at the high school.

Suffolk County Legislator Robert Trotta, center, stopped by the Suffolk County Sheriff's table, where Correction Officers Julius Nelson, left, and Everett Oliver, right, provided parents with free drug testing kits and other child safety information.

(Smithtown, NY)...Suffolk County Legislator Robert Trotta who serves on the Legislature's Health and Human Services Committees attended the Family In Support of Treatment (FIST) resource fair at the Kings Park High School. FIST is a grassroots organization composed of concerned families, individual and organizations, as well as drug prevention and treatment professionals who advocate for those dealing with addiction.

A variety of government and nonprofit agencies that specialize in drug/alcohol abuse programs participated in the resource fair and shared valuable information and referrals to the residents. There were also presentations by professionals who addressed the signs and symptoms of drug use, current trends, the impact on the family, prevention and treatment options and advocacy programs.
