Legislator Robert Trotta Congratulates Eric Homeyer Kings Park Troop 75's Newest Eagle Scout

Suffolk County Legislator Robert Trotta presented Eagle Scout Eric Homeyer with a proclamation recognizing his accomplishments.

(Smithtown, NY)...Suffolk County Legislator Robert Trotta (R- Fort Salonga) congratulated Eric Homeyer of Boy Scout Troop 75 at his recent Eagle Scout Court of Honor. Eric, a resident of Kings Park, earned the distinguished rank of Eagle Scout through his commitment to scouting and the community. He secured the level of Eagle Scout by successfully completing his Community Service Project, which was to supervise his fellow volunteers while constructing and installing eight benches in the water of the fly fishing stations at Caleb Smith State Park in Smithtown. The benches provide a place for the fishermen to rest and measure their catch.

Suffolk County Legislator Robert Trotta noted that Eric accomplished the rank of Eagle Scout while still a teenager and a junior in High School. “During your pursuit of the Eagle Scout, you have had the opportunity to develop your character and sense of being and that is something you should be very proud of,” said Legislator Robert Trotta. “Your pledge to our town has been evident since 2004 when you joined the Tiger Cub and continued through the ranks of scouting and now that you have attained the title of Eagle Scout you have demonstrated that you are a leader and an active member of our community who only wants the best for the youth and great people of Kings Park. I applaud your actions and urge you to keep up the good work,” added Legislator Trotta.
