Suffolk County Legislator Rob Trotta and Residents Come Out to Bid Farewell to Matty O'Reilly of Kings Park

Suffolk County Legislator Rob Trotta presented him with a proclamation recognizing his contributions to the community including being the first Grand Marshal of the Kings Park St. Patrick's Day Parade.

(Smithtown, NY)...Recently, the Kings Park community came together to celebrate with Matty O'Reilly who is moving to Florida to live with his son. "Matty has been a fixture of Kings Park having lived here most of his life, served during World War II, retired from the Kings Park Psychiatric Center and was a founding member and past Commander of the American Legion Post 944 in Kings Park," said Suffolk Legislator Rob Trotta. "He has a terrific sense of humor and we will all miss him,” added Trotta. Many friends came to reminisce with Matty and to wish him well in his new adventure.
