Suffolk County Legislator Robert Trotta Talks about Corruption in County Government on Cablevision's "Meet the Leaders"

(Smithtown, NY)...Suffolk County Legislator Robert Trotta (R- Fort Salonga, NY) was the featured guest on Cablevision's "Meet the Leaders" hosted by Patrick Halpin, a former Suffolk County Executive and County Legislator. They had a lively discussion about corruption in County government that focused on the former Chief of Police Burke, who plead guilty to obstruction of justice and for beating a suspect, who is now in prison awaiting sentencing, as well as the federal government's investigation into the District Attorney's Office and its head of the corruption department. Mr. Halpin asked Legislator Trotta if he was worried about his life. "No, I am not. I am doing the right thing and I have no fears...I've dealt with drug dealers and murderers and I'm not afraid of politicians," responded Trotta.

"Meet the Leaders" will air on Channel 118 from now until the end of March during the following time slots:

Sunday:	5:30pm
Monday:	10:30pm
Tuesday:	1:00pm
Wednesday:	11:00am
Thursday:	1:00pm
Friday:	5:30pm
Saturday:	9:30pm

The show can also be watched on line at www.meettheleaders.com.
