Suffolk County Girl Scouts Earn the Gold Recognized by Suffolk County Legislator Rob Trotta

(Smithtown, NY)...Suffolk County Legislator Rob Trotta was invited to the annual Girl Scouts of Suffolk County Council Gold Award Ceremony where several scouts from his district were presented with their Gold Award in recognition of completing their community projects. The Girl Scout Gold Award is the highest honor a girl scout can achieve in scouting. "These young women are a testament to the values of leadership, character and service that are so important to have in this society and I am very proud of them," said Legislator Rob Trotta.
