Suffolk County Legislator Rob Trotta Attends Eagle Court of Honor for Michael Paolillo, Troop 888, of Smithtown

(Smithtown, NY)...Smithtown resident, Michael Paolillo, who achieved the rank of Eagle Scout was recognized for this accomplishment at his Eagle Scout Court of honor on June 18, which was attended by family, friends, fellow scouts and scout officials and local dignitaries and representatives. Michael earned the well-regarded rank of Eagle Scout through his consistent dedication to the community and with the completion of his Eagle Scout project and obtaining the required Merit Badges.

“It is a pleasure to attend an Eagle Scout Court of Honor and to congratulate such a fine young man who has earned this rank while still a teenager. This recognition will always be with him as he pursues his education and future goals,” said Suffolk County Legislator Rob Trotta.
