LEGISLATOR KEVIN McCaffrey THANKS WILLOW PET HOTEL AND ISLAND VETERINARY SERVICES

Lindenhurst, NY: After Hurricane Sandy Willow Pet Hotel opened their doors to the pets of families displaced by the storm. A number of staff members lived at the facility for days, so they could be there 24 hours a day to assist the community. This community spirit was seen once again when Marc Rosenzweig, the owner of Willow Pet Hotel, offered to board four cats free of charge for an elderly woman who was being forced to enter emergency housing. Thanks to Dr. Jamie Weiner and Dr. Angela Martin of Island Veterinary Services and their not-for-profit Paws for a Cause, an organization that gives free Veterinary services to families who cannot afford them, the cats were given a clean bill of health and are safe and sound at Willow Pet Hotel. "It is small businesses like Willow Pet Hotel and Island Veterinary Services that make our community so great. Not only did Marc, Dr. Weiner, and Dr. Martin step up during Hurricane Sandy, but they continue their community support every day." said McCaffrey "I encourage everyone to patronize businesses that work to help improve our community."

-Legislator Kevin McCaffrey is Legislator for the 14th District covering, Lindenhurst, West Babylon, Babylon Village and parts of North Babylon.-
