Lindenhurst, NY: On June 26th, Suffolk County Legislator Kevin McCaffrey (R-Lindenhurst) was honored to have the opportunity to speak before the graduates of Lindenhurst High School's Class of 2015. McCaffrey was joined by a wide variety of distinguished guests from federal, state, and local governments, in addition to members of the faculty and administration of Lindenhurst High School.

McCaffrey, the father of two Lindenhurst High School alumni, offered words of congratulations and encouragement to the hundreds of smiling graduates, and he expressed thanks to the proud parents for the support given to their children over the years. McCaffrey explained how Lindenhurst has equipped these graduates with the essential tools that they will need to explore the many opportunities that are sure to come their way in the near future.

“Lindenhurst public schools have a long and proud tradition of preparing young adults for their next big step after high school, whether it is college, the military, or the workforce,” said McCaffrey. “Regardless of where the paths of today’s graduates may take them, I sincerely hope that they remember how special the Lindenhurst community is, and choose to raise their families here one day. I wish the graduates the best of success, health, and happiness in all of their future pursuits.”

Lindenhurst High School’s Class of 2015 had 515 graduates, most of whom will be attending college in the fall. This year marks the institution’s 96th commencement ceremony.

Legislator McCaffrey represents Suffolk County’s 14th Legislative District which encompasses the Village of Lindenhurst, Babylon Village, the hamlets of West Babylon and North Lindenhurst, portions of Copiague, North Babylon, and Babylon’s barrier beach communities.
