LESLIE KENNEDY HONORS AMERICA'S FALLEN HEROES

May 25th, 2015 –Legislator Leslie Kennedy kicked off her Memorial Day weekend on Saturday by marching with Veteran groups at the Centereach Memorial Day Parade. “I had the honor of laying a wreath at the Centereach Memorial, and was moved by the touching ceremony”

Then, on Memorial Day Legislator Kennedy started off by honoring the men and women in our armed services who paid the ultimate price, she started her day St. James Memorial day Parade, hosted by the VFW post 395. “It is an honor to have marched with the VFW post 395, it is clear that they truly honor men and women who have fought for this country and respect those who have paid the ultimate price” said Legislator Kennedy.

Afterwards Leslie made her way to the Smithtown Memorial Day Parade where she again paid her respect to our fallen heroes. “For me this is always a somber day but I am honored to live and work in a place where we have the utmost respect for our veterans". The Smithtown Parade was followed by a Memorial service for those who have died protecting our freedom here in America.

(Leslie Kennedy, Dave Fishler, James Dowling)
