KENNEDY HONORS POLICE OFFICER FOR HIS SERVICE

June 10th, 2015 –Police Officer Dennis Hendrickson has had the honor of receiving the 2015 Peter J. Biegen Award for his service in the department and his community. Officer Hendrickson has been a member of the Suffolk County Police Department since 2006, and due to his training as a paramedic he has been a member of the Med-Cat team since 2006. He also works with the youth of Long Island in the Police Explorers Program

Legislator Leslie Kennedy (R-Nesconset) attended the ceremony in honor of Officer Hendrickson and presented him with a Proclamation; an official congratulations from the county complete with the county seal fixed upon it. "It is an honor to have such a great man in our Police Department, Officer Hendrickson not only risks his life every day to keep the public safe, but he also gives back to the community in his free time." said Legislator Kennedy.

(John Kennedy, Robert Trotta, Leslie Kennedy, PO Dennis Hendrickson, Patrick Vecchio, Bill Eckelkamp, Inspector Harold Jantzen, Sergeant Daniel Olsen)

In addition to the work that Police Officer Dennis Hendrickson does in the 4th precinct, he also is a volunteer fireman in the Manorville Fire department, and he continues to do a great job with his police work. Officer Hendrickson works hard for his community and he is worthy of praise.
