45 RPM ROCKS NESCONSET GAZEBO

July 21st, 2015 – On a fair weather evening at the Nesconset Gazebo people of the community gathered to hear the Nesconset Chamber of Commerce concert, with 45 RPM performing the show. A sizeable crowd had gathered for the show, and they were not disappointed.

To kick off the festivities with the singing of our National Anthem Alexia a high school student from Smithtown did the honors. As always Long Island Cares was in attendance to collect food for those in need amongst our communities.

(Jim Delahanty, Alexia Fiske, and Leslie Kennedy)

The crowd greatly enjoyed the tunes of the 70's that were performed by 45 RPM as they did their tribute to the music commonly played on AM radio stations in the 1970's. "The band played a great show and it was cool to see all the community come together and enjoy some family fun during the warmer nights of the summer, 45 RPM took me back to my childhood when these songs were played on the radio all summer long" said Leslie Kennedy.
