THE DRIFTWOODS A SUCCESS AT NESCONSET GAZEBO

August 4th, 2015 – Once again a robust crowd gathered at the Nesconset Gazebo last Tuesday night to see this week's show put on by Beach Boys tribute band The Driftwoods, which was sponsored by Legislator Leslie Kennedy (R-Nesconset) and the Nesconset Chamber of Commerce. As always members of the community came with canned goods and checks for Long Island Cares to feed the hungry here in our own backyard.

The National Anthem was sung by Aliza Samhoun, a young lady from Smithtown who sang a beautiful rendition of the Star Spangled Banner. "I was so pleased to have Aliza sing our National Anthem." said Legislator Kennedy

The Driftwoods played the beach themed summer songs of the Beach Boys, and the crowd was enthusiastic. "The music was excellent and the crowd was great, this is the first time I've heard the Driftwoods and they were spectacular, they sound just like the real thing" said Legislator Leslie Kennedy.
