A BLAST FROM THE PAST WITH THAT 70'S BAND

August 18th, 2015 – After having been postponed due to inclement weather, That 70's Band performed on Tuesday night to a crowd who was eager to hear them play. Along with the normal festivities and the food drive for our neighbors less fortunate, the Nesconset Summer Concert series, put together by Leslie Kennedy (R-Nesconset) and the Nesconset Chamber of Commerce was honored by a special guest. That special guest was none other than Congressman Lee Zeldin(R-Shirley), who was presented the Nesconset Chamber with a flag that had been flown over the Captiol Building in Washington. In order to replace the old flag the 4th precinct Police Explorers were on duty to lower the old flag and to replace it with the new flag provided by the Congressman.

Along with the patriotic festivities of a new flag being raised over the Nesconset Gazebo, the concert was kicked off with the singing of the National Anthem, sung by Isaiah Washington. Isaiah is going into his senior year at Centereach High School, and plans on pursuing music in his future.

That 70's Band played a musical tribute to the songs of Earth, Wind, & Fire, Kool & The Gang, Donna Summers, and other bands from the 1970's "The music was great and I was honored to have our Congressman come and present us with a flag that had been flown over the Capitol" said Legislator Leslie Kennedy. "I was also impressed with Isaiah's singing of the National Anthem, and I look forward to hearing him sing again next Tuesday at our final concert."
