SONGS IN THE ATTIC ROCK NESCONSET

August 25, 2015 – For the last night of the Nesconset summer concert series the community showed up in full force to see the Billy Joel tribute band Songs in the Attic. Leslie Kennedy (R-Nesconset) and the Nesconset Chamber of Commerce were there to see things go smoothly for the series finale. As always concert goers came with canned goods and checks for Long Island Cares to feed the hungry here in our own backyard.

The National Anthem was sung by David Clark, the lead singer of Songs in the Attic “I was so pleased to have David the lead singer sing our National Anthem.” said Legislator

Kennedy.

Songs in the Attic played the songs of Long Islands very own living legend: Billy Joel. “Our concert goers always love this band, Billy Joel is such a cultural icon here on Long Island, and his music embodies the essence of Long Island. Songs in the Attic did a great job of emulating Billy Joel.” said Legislator Kennedy.

This concert brings a close to the Nesconset Summer Concert Series. "I had so much fun going to these concerts this summer, this last show was fantastic as always but I am sad to see the series over." said the legislator. "I'm sad to see it end, but I look forward to next summer."
