LESLIE KENNEDY KEYNOTE SPEAKER AT WOMENS POWER BREAKFAST

(Mary Calamia, Ellen Pellegrino, Leslie Kennedy, with two other attendees)

September 30, 2015 – On Wednesday morning, Legislator Leslie Kennedy (R-Nesconset) attended a Women’s Power Breakfast hosted by Islip Town Supervisor Angie M. Carpenter.

The breakfast took place at the stunning Windows on the Lake Banquet Hall, a site that has full view of beautiful Lake Ronkonkoma. Legislator Kennedy was joined by some of Long Island’s top female professional and communal leaders; Leslie was featured as an honored guest and keynote speaker.

The complimentary breakfast served as a meet-and-greet as each woman introduced herself and the responsibilities of her own profession. During the breakfast, attendees enjoyed each other’s company while discussing local issues affiliated with Suffolk County and Long Island.

When given the microphone, Legislator Kennedy introduced herself as well as gave a brief description of the vital work she does for the community as a public servant of Suffolk County.

Upon conclusion of the breakfast, Leslie offered her sincerest thanks and applause toward the exciting event.

“A big thank you goes out to Angie Carpenter for affording me the opportunity to speak at her Women’s Power Breakfast this morning. It was such a great opportunity to meet such inspirational women and be able to enjoy their company”
