LESLIE KENNEDY SWORN IN AS LEGISLATOR OF SUFFOLK'S 12TH DISTRICT

(Thomas Baraga, Thomas Muratore, Leslie Kennedy, Kevin McCaffrey, Robert Trotta, Thomas Cilmi)

January 4, 2016 – The New Year marked a new commencement for Legislator Leslie Kennedy (R-Nesconset) and the Suffolk County Legislature. On Monday, Legislator Kennedy was officially sworn in to her first full term as Legislator of the 12th District of Suffolk County; as she promised to continue to serve the people of Suffolk County.

The swearing in ceremony took place at the William H. Rogers Legislative Building in Hauppauge, NY; Leslie, as well as her fellow Legislative elect's, took the oath of office at the first general/organizational meeting of the New Year.

After proclaiming her oath, Leslie offered her sincerest appreciation and gratitude to her supporters all throughout the county:

(Legislator Kennedy Being Sworn in along with her fellow Legislators)

"It was my honor to be sworn in today as the Suffolk County Legislator of the 12th Legislative District. I am blessed that I have this opportunity to continue to serve all of the people of the county, I look forward to working hard in order to make Suffolk County a better place for people to live, work, and raise a family."

This past year, Leslie passionately partook in many exciting events with the citizens of Suffolk County including: several blood drives, local concerts, volunteer projects, and much more. This coming year, Leslie is beyond thrilled to continue to expand her relationship with the members of the 12th District and will be engaged in even more events that will benefit the communities of Suffolk.
