LESLIE KENNEDY KEYNOTE SPEAKER AT LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS LUNCH

(Leslie poses with the League of Women Voters of Suffolk County)

January 12, 2015 – On Tuesday, Legislator Leslie Kennedy (R-Nesconset) was featured as an honored guest speaker at the League of Women Voters of Smithtown Luncheon at Old Street Pub in Smithtown, NY.

The LWV of Smithtown is a non-profit, non-partisan organization that encourages the informed and active participation of citizens in government, and influences public policy through education and advocacy.

"These small gatherings of League members give us an opportunity to speak with and better understand the job and perspective of each invited speaker; it allows us to voice our concerns and questions in a relaxed and informal setting" said Mary Zopf, the co-President of the LWV of Smithtown.

After having spoken at the luncheon, Legislator Kennedy extended her appreciation to the group for her invitation:

"It was my pleasure to be an invited guest at the League of women Voters of Smithtown Lunch Meeting this afternoon. I would like to thank the league members for affording me this great opportunity."

The LWV of Smithtown welcomes new members to join us in its advocacy work; please call (631)-499-0107 for more information about the League and its programs.
