January 18, 2015 – On Monday, Legislator Leslie Kennedy (R-Nesconset) attended a special gathering at the Nesconset Fire Department to spend the evening with some of the communities most dedicated individuals.

Legislator Kennedy, accompanied by her husband County Comptroller John Kennedy, met with a group of former United States Military servicemen who are now dedicating their lives as volunteer firefighters in the Nesconset Fire Department. Leslie commemorated the bravery and service of these men with special pins and certificates to honor them for their dedication as soldiers and now as community volunteer firemen.

After having spent the evening with the volunteers, Leslie offered her praise and appreciation towards their continued service.

“It was my pleasure to meet these very selfless and kindhearted men. Not only did they dedicate their lives to serving in the military, but now they are helping to protect the community by volunteering as firemen; they truly exemplify heroism and bravery.”

Both Legislator Kennedy and her husband thanked the men for their devotion and service to the community and country.
