LESLIE KENNEDY HONORS LONG SERVING SUFFOLK COUNTY HERO

(Legislator Leslie Kennedy with Detective Lieutenant Thomas O'Heir)

February 1, 2016 – After serving Suffolk County for 48 years in the Police Department Detective Lieutenant Thomas O'Heir has decided to retire effective February 2nd. In order to honor him for his service Legislator Leslie Kennedy (R-Nesconset) presented him with a proclamation with the County Seal fixed upon it to recognize his long-time service to the community.

Detective Lieutenant O'Heirs' long and accomplished career began in 1968 after graduating the Police Academy; Thomas O'Heir was initially assigned to the 1st Precinct. Through the years he has been assigned to various precincts throughout the County and has advanced through the ranks. He now retires as a Detective Lieutenant from the 4th Precinct in Hauppauge.

"I am proud of the work the Lieutenant Detective O'Heir has done for this community, and I am impressed with the length of his service, and the various roles he has held in the department, his services will be greatly missed and we wish him the best in his retirement" said Leslie Kennedy
