Legislator Kennedy Keeping Score

(Legislator Leslie Kennedy with Air Jamaica)

March 19, 2016 – Legislator Leslie Kennedy (R-Nesconset) had her own March Madness Saturday night with the Harlem Wizards at Hauppauge High School. In order to raise money for Forest Brook Elementary School PTA, Hauppauge High School, as well as the Courtney Sipes Foundation. The Harlem Wizards is an exhibition basketball team that showcases their skills to audiences around the nation. Across the country they have done their share to help raise money for various causes, charities, and schools.

Leslie found herself as the score keeper for the Harlem Wizards, who are known for including the audience in their act. The Wizards played against the staff and faculty at Hauppauge High School, who may not have been as skilled as the Wizards. "The Harlem Wizards put on a great show and they are extremely skilled in their craft, I had a lot of fun as the honorary score keeper, and I look forward to this event each year." said Legislator Kennedy.

The Harlem Wizards are a talented group of Basketball players, most of whom have had successful college basketball careers. They can dunk, do alley oops, and various other tricks to awe crowd, and their primary focus is raising money for local schools and charities.
