IAN WHITEHEAD HONORED FOR SCOUTING ACHEIEVEMENT

May 14th, 2016 – Last week Legislator Leslie Kennedy (R-Nesconset) had the distinct privilege of paying honor to Ian Whitehead who has achieved the rank of Eagle Scout. Leslie Kennedy was joined with Assemblyman Michael Fitzpatrick and Suffolk County Comptroller John Kennedy in honoring this young man.

In order to obtain the rank of Eagle Scout, one must complete the appropriate amount of merit badges as well as a big community service project. Ian Whitehead chose to complete his project for the benefit of the Smithtown Fire Department Riverfront property. Ian removed an old playground that was on the property and he rebuilt a safer sturdier playground so that the children can enjoy safely.

Ian Whitehead's sacrificial service to his community made an impact on Legislator Kennedy: "Ian is a young man who will go on to accomplish great works in his life, I was pleased to meet with him and honored to take part in the celebration of his attainment of the rank of Eagle Scout."
