2016 SUMMER CONCERT SERIES BEGINS WITH THAT 70'S BAND

(Leslie Kennedy with Abigail Ennis, Hannah Saglimbeni, and Brett Lynott)

July 12th, 2015 – On a fair weather evening at the Nesconset Gazebo people of the community gathered to hear the first Nesconset Chamber of Commerce concert on the season, kicking things off with That 70's Band performing the show. A gigantic crowd had gathered for the show, and they were not disappointed.

To kick off the festivities Abigail, Hannah, and Brett, three students from Samoset Middle School did the honor of singing our National Anthem. As always Long Island Cares was in attendance to collect food for those in need amongst our communities. In addition to the singing of the National Anthem, John Zollo of Smithtown also performed God Bless America prior to the concert, and the 4th Precinct Explorers presented the flag.

The concert goes greatly enjoyed That 70's Band; a tribute band performing music of the 1970's including Earth, Wind, & Fire, Kool & The Gang and hits from Donna Summer. "The summer doesn't officially start until the Nesconset Chamber Concert Series, I want to thank the students from Samoset Middle School for singing our National Anthem, I want to thank the Police Explorers for presenting our colors and of course That 70's Band for performing an awesome show" said Leslie Kennedy.
