SONGS IN THE ATTIC PLAY TO A PACKED CROWD

(Leslie Kennedy with Abigail Ennis, Hannah Saglimbeni, and Brett Lynott)

July 19th, 2016 – A multitude of people filled the Nesconset Gazebo Park to hear the Billy Joel tribute band Songs in the Attic on Tuesday night .

Isaiah Washington a recent high school graduate who will soon be attending Westminster Chior College performed the National Anthem to kick off the concert. In addition to the singing of the National Anthem, Leslie Kennedy had the privliege of presenting an award to a young man Christopher who won the running portion of the MLB Pitch Hit & Run competiton hosted by Leslie Kennedy’s office right here in Nesconset. As always Long Island Cares was in attendance to collect food for those in need amongst our communities.

The concert goes greatly enjoyed That 70's Band; a tribute band performing music of the 1970's including Earth, Wind, & Fire, Kool & The Gang and hits from Donna Summer. "The summer doesn't officially start until the Nesconset Chamber Concert Series, I want to thank the students from Samoset Middle School for singing our National Anthem, I want to thank the Police Explorers for presenting our colors and of course That 70's Band for performing an awesome show" said Leslie Kennedy.
