THREE SCOUTS HONORED FOR THEIR COMMUNITY SERVICE

(Leslie Kennedy and John Kennedy with Charles C. Colgan, Paul A. David, Christian Hornedo, and their family)

July 24th, 2016 – This past weekend Legislator Leslie Kennedy (R-Nesconset) had the opportunity to celebrate a special event for Boy Scout Troop 9, three boys Charles C. Colgan, Paul A. David, and Christian Hornedo achieved the rank of Eagle Scout. The Eagle Court of Honor was held at the Ronkonkoma Fire Department last Sunday afternoon.

In order to reach the rank of Eagle Scout, one must obtain the appropriate amount of merit badges as well as completing an extensive community service project. For his service project, Charles Colgan constructed a sign to welcome visitors to The Town of Nesconset; he also installed flower beds and planted flowers. Paul David completed his project by constructing a letter replacement sign to inform the community of upcoming events held at the Mastic Beach Hebrew Center. For Christian Hornedo's Eagle Scout Project he made improvements to St. Mary's Episcopal Church including the construction of a safety rail along with the installation of a handicap sign and repainting parking lot spaces. Each young man worked diligently to improve upon the communities that they live in, the work that they have done can be enjoyed by the whole community.

The rank of Eagle Scout is the highest honor that can be bestowed upon a Boy Scout. "These boys have done great things for their community and their houses of worship, I am sure that they will go on to do great things in their future." said Legislator Kennedy.
