Legislator Spencer Honors Pamela Johnston; Longtime Advocate for Domestic Violence Abuse Victims

HAUPPAUGE, NY – In honor of her many years of service and distinguished career as the Executive Director Victim Information Bureau of Suffolk (VIBS), Suffolk County Legislator William R. Spencer, M.D. (D-Centerport), presented Pamela Johnston a proclamation at the General Meeting of the Suffolk County Legislature on Tuesday, September 9th.

“This proclamation is a small but fitting tribute to Ms. Johnston’s lifelong commitment and dedication to helping victims of domestic abuse and violent crimes,” stated Legislator Spencer. “Especially in light of the recent attention around domestic violence and abuse, we are compelled to support those in our communities that are on the frontlines of this devastating issue. I applaud Ms. Johnston for her courage and dedication to helping those come out of the dark and lonely confines of domestic abuse.”
