MEDIA ADVISORY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 31, 2014

Honoring Our Suffolk County Veterans

SUFFOLK COUNTY FLAG SIGNED BY LOCAL VETERANS WILL BE FLOWN AT ROGERS BUILDING IN RECOGNITION OF VETERANS DAY

Hauppauge, NY –Suffolk County is home to thousands of brave men and women who have honorably served our country in the Armed Forces. It is due to their commitment and dedication that we benefit from the freedoms that we all enjoy today. Legislator Spencer invites you to pay tribute to our local veterans at a flag raising ceremony. The Suffolk County Flag, which will be flown at the William H. Rogers Legislative Building through November 11th, was signed by veterans at the Veterans Appreciation Breakfast in May of 2014. Take a moment to thank our vets, and to reflect on the contributions that they have selflessly made to uphold the principles of our great nation.
