Dear Editor,

Suffolk County is home to thousands of brave men and women who have honorably served our country in the Armed Forces. It is due to their commitment and dedication that we benefit from the freedoms that we all enjoy each day.

Veterans Day is a time to reflect on the contributions that our service men and women have selflessly made to uphold the principles of our nation. They have put their lives on the line to protect our way of life and everything that we stand for.

In honor of our local veterans I was joined by my colleagues and County Executive Steve Bellone for a flag raising ceremony last Wednesday. The Suffolk County Flag was signed by local veterans at the Veterans Appreciation Breakfast I hosted in May of 2014.

Suffolk County is committed to providing meaningful services to our veterans. To find out more about the services provided by Suffolk County's Veterans Service Agency you can call (631) 853-VETS (our Hauppauge Office at 100 Veterans Memorial Highway), or (631) 852-1410 (our Riverhead Office at 300 Center Drive), or via email at servingheroes@suffolkcountyny.gov or veterans.info@suffolkcountyny.gov.

Sincerely,

William R. Spencer, M.D.
