Huntington, NY – Legislator William R. Spencer, M.D. joined the Huntington Ancient Order of Hibernians for the 2015 St. Patrick's Day Parade. It was the 81st year of the grand Huntington tradition that started during the country's Great Depression.

"I applaud the great work and pride the Huntington Ancient Order of Hibernians put into this wonderful community tradition, it is an event we look forward to every year," stated Legislator Spencer.

The parade route was packed with spectators and included over 25 marching bands. The route began at the corner of Church Street and New York Avenue in Huntington Station headed north to 25A then west, ending at St. Patrick's Church in Huntington Village.
