Legislator Spencer Recognizes Local Educator for Outstanding Leadership

Hauppauge, March 24, 2015: Legislator William R. Spencer presented Alison Matthews, a business teacher at Harborfields High School, with a proclamation at last Tuesday night's General Meeting to recognize her for being invited by the New York State Department of Education to participate in the NYSED Business and Marketing Test Framework Review Conference. In this capacity, she will review test frameworks for new exams being developed for the New York State Teacher Certification.

Alison also serves as the advisor to the Harborfields High School Distributive Education Club of America and the Huntington Chamber of Commerce Young Professionals.

"It give me great pleasure to present this proclamation to Alison in recognition if her dedication and commitment to her profession and to the young people in Harborfields School District and community," stated Legislator Spencer.
