Huntington's Own Gifted Hearts Reach Out Worldwide

Huntington, NY - Gifted Hearts, a charity founded by kids for kids was launched in March of 2015 by brother and sister, TJ and Isabella Manfuso, to provide pediatric care packs and school supplies to children locally and around the world. They are currently preparing for upcoming medical mission trips to Ecuador, Dominican Republic, Costa Rica and Haiti. Legislator William R. Spencer, M.D. was happy to join them recently at Ben and Jerry's in Huntington where they were busy assembling backpacks with school supplies. "I was so impressed with the giving hearts, vision and organization of these young people. It's inspiring to see them taking the lead to provide for the needs of other children throughout the world," stated Legislator Spencer.
