Thanking Local Businesses for Paying it Forward With Personal Care Product Drive

Centerport, NY -Kehillath Shalom Synagogue is joined by Legislator William Spencer for a reception to acknowledge and thank the businesses and local groups who helped make the 5,000 Purses Personal Care Product Drive a great success! Thanks to the overwhelming support of the community 384 purses, filled with personal care products, have been given to women in need. The drive, initiated by Kehillath Shalom Synagogue, was slated to end on February 14, 2016. Despite the "official" end of the drive, generous donations continue to arrive and an additional 125 care packages have been received, which will be given to The Inn and the Tri-CYA for distribution to women in homeless shelters to enable them to maintain their dignity.
