Department of Audit & Control Raises Money for Long Island Cares with “No Pants Day” at Comptroller’s Office!

June 12, 2015 – Suffolk County Comptroller John M. Kennedy, Jr., along with all of the Department of Audit & Control was proud to participate in a “No Pants Day” at the office. The Casual Friday had employees donate money for Long Island Cares Inc. – The Harry Chapin Food Bank. Long Island Cares is dedicated to feeding the hungry here on Long Island. In total the Department was able to raise $350 dollars for Long Island Cares and also enjoy wearing comfortable clothes despite all the heat!
