

New Prospective Volunteer Training

September 22 & 23, 29 & 30, 2018

* PLEASE NOTE: Trainees must attend all four training sessions*

Response is seeking volunteer crisis counselors and will offer a free training program to those interested in becoming the caring voice on the other end of the phone.

- Sessions will run from 9:30 am - 4:00 pm each day
- Trainees must attend all four sessions
- Training will take place in the Stony Brook area
- College credit is available
- Bilingual volunteers are especially needed

No experience is necessary-only a sincere willingness to learn and grow. The ability to make a one year commitment of four hours a week is required. Training for all programs include lecture, role-playing exercises, and private and group supervision.

Volunteer as a counselor with Response Crisis Center and become the caring voice for those in need of support! Those interested in attending the upcoming training can register now to reserve their spot. Registration is pending until an application is complete and verification is conducted.

Please review the FAQ and visit www.responsecrisiscenter.org. Please RSVP by Friday, September 15. Space is limited. For Questions Please Contact jgreco@responsehotline.org or 631-751-7620
