ROCKY POINT, NY – Suffolk County Legislator Sarah Anker presented a certificate of congratulations to the Rocky Point High School Cheerleading team for winning the national championship at the General Meeting of the Legislature on April 24th.

The team won their second consecutive national title in February at the Universal Cheerleaders Association's Medium Varsity Division in Orlando, Florida.

"I am honored to recognize the Rocky Point cheerleaders for their teamwork, talent and perseverance allowing them to excel to the nation's best," said Legislator Anker.
