Safe Haven Program: Hotline 1-866-TLC-BABY - 1 (866) 852-2229

In order to develop an alternative to mothers abandoning their newborn babies without ensuring their safety, New York State Law now allows for women with newborn babies to give them up within five days of birth with complete confidentiality and without having to identify themselves. In Suffolk we have taken the initiative to designate most hospitals in the county as “Safe Havens” to receive these newborns. Callers can remain anonymous, are invited to provide medical information about the infant (although it is not required), and, if the baby has not been harmed or neglected, the mother is safe from criminal prosecution.
